

First Call for Abstracts

The First International Conference on ASEAN Studies (ICAS 2015) Bangkok, October 3 - 4, 2015

Theme: Emerging ASEAN Community 2015

<http://www.pbic.tu.ac.th/main/content/1st-international-conference-asean-studies-2015>

Pridi Banomyong International College, Thammasat University is pleased to announce that the First International Conference on ASEAN Studies (ICAS 2015) will be held on 3-4 October 2015 in Bangkok.

This conference will provide a dynamic forum with focus on three ASEAN COMMUNITY pillars

- Political and security cooperation
- Economic cooperation
- Socio-cultural cooperation.

The latest research findings along with in-depth discussions will be featured in this inclusive conference.

Keynote Speakers:

- Dr. Surin Pitsuwan
(Former Secretary General of ASEAN)
- Prof. Dr. William Foley
(The University of Sydney, Australia)
- Prof. Dr. Thanet Aphornsuvan
(Pridi Banomyong International College, Thammasat University)

Scholars and students are invited to offer papers relevant to the conference theme, including but not limited to:

- Political and security cooperation in ASEAN Community
- Economic cooperation in ASEAN Community
- Socio-cultural cooperation in ASEAN Community
- Preparation for economic cooperation in ASEAN Community
- ASEAN and multiculturalism
- Multiculturalism and education in ASEAN
- ASEAN educational exchange
- Communication in the ASEAN context
- Ethnic diversity in ASEAN
- Southeast Asian Studies in ASEAN .

Participants will be allocated 20 minutes to speak on their papers, plus 5 minutes for discussion.

Deadline for abstracts: April 10th, 2015.

Notice of Acceptance: May 31st, 2015 (early notification on request).

Abstracts :should be no longer than 400 words and should be sent as an email attachment (MS Word compatible or PDF) to interconf.pbic@gmail.com.

Please address inquiries to: interconf.pbic@gmail.com.

